A Winter School in

CRITICAL LEGAL GEOGRAPHY

22 | 23 | 24

January 2025

University of Verona
Italy

The Winter School “Explorations in Critical Legal Geographies” aims to bring together PhD candidates and young academics with a variety of backgrounds (legal, geographical, political, sociological, anthropological, and so on) in the pluralistic field of critical legal-geographical debates. The winter school is an intensive three-day program taught in English providing a comprehensive critical approach and an interdisciplinary understanding of the different issues, topics, and methodologies that populate this intriguing field of research.

Application deadline: 30 October 2024
